H.R. 3920, THE TRADE AND
GLOBALIZATION ACT OF 2007

HON. BETTY MCCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2007

Ms. MCCOLLUM of Minnesota. Madam Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 3920, the Trade and Globalization Act of 2007, and commend the Ways and Means, and Education and Labor committees for their hard work on this legislation.

The health of the American economy depends in large part on trade with foreign markets. As globalization, technology, and trade agreements continue to remove barriers to free trade, we must work to ensure that our workers, farmers and small businesses do not suffer unfairly for this economic growth. This legislation moves the Trade Adjustment Assistance, TAA, program in a new direction with that sentiment in mind.

The current TAA program was created in a different era, and fails to address the realities of trade in the 21st century. The Trade and Globalization Act expands eligibility for TAA training programs, temporary income support and healthcare assistance to include manufacturing workers who currently are ineligible for benefits for technical reasons, and to service workers who are increasingly losing their jobs to outsourcing. It also significantly increases funding for these programs, without adding to the deficit, or raising taxes on American families. An updated TAA program will allow all trade-displaced workers to acquire the skills they need to reenter the workforce, and the flexibility to choose their most effective path.

Workers facing the loss of a good job face significant challenges beyond the loss of income. To help families prepare for their transition, this bill requires employers to provide adequate notice to their employees before a layoff, and provides an incentive for states to reform their unemployment insurance programs to realize the needs of low-income, part-time and female members of the workforce.

Additionally, this bill recognizes that trade can have significant impacts for entire regions of our country, and that American businesses are critical to helping workers adapt to the global economy. That is why this legislation provides incentives for firms to redevelop and hire workers in those communities disproportionately affected by international trade.

We owe our prosperity to our greatest national asset—our American workers. I urge you to join me in passing this much needed legislation that will assist these workers who keep America's economy strong.

INTRODUCTION OF THE CHILD-CARE AFFORDABILITY ACT OF 2007

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2007

Mrs. MALONEY New York. Madam Speaker, today, on behalf of myself, Rep. YVETTE CLARKE, and Rep. NYDIA VELÁZQUEZ, I introduce the Childcare Affordability Act of 2007, which will create an above-the-line tax deduction for working parents of up to $13,000 in childcare expenses for one child and a maximum of $26,000 for two or more children. This deduction is based on the average cost of childcare in urban areas, which is $13,000 per year—more than one quarter of the typical family's income. This bill will also make the current Dependent Care Tax Credit fully refundable and expand the qualified actual expenses—now capped at $3,000 per child with a maximum of $6,000 to $13,000 for one child, with a $26,000 maximum for two or more children. This change more accurately reflects the current costs of childcare for working families, who will now be able to choose whichever option provides them with the greatest tax relief.

Greater tax relief is an important and necessary step toward improving the lives of America's working families. The rising cost of child care is squeezing working families and the amount of assistance the Federal government currently provides to ease the burden of these expenses is inadequate. We can and should do more to support our working families. Quality childcare is essential to healthy child development. This bill will help America's families provide high-quality care for their children, which will pay off in the future by increasing productivity and economic growth, and stemming the tide of rising inequality in the United States. With this initiative, we can ease the burden on working families, while making an essential investment in the future prosperity of our Nation.

IN HONOR OF THE EXTRAOR-DINARY COMMUNITY SERVICE
OF THE BRAEN FAMILY

HON. SCOTT GARRETT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2007

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commend the Braen family for its tremendous service to its community. Currently in its fifth generation of family management of its quarry and construction business, the Braen family has long typified the "good neighbor."

In addition to the commitment that the individual members of the Braen family pursue in charity work and community service, the company has initiated a program to promote volunteerism with its own employees. Their efforts have not gone unnoticed. And, tonight, the Braen family and the Braen family of companies—Stone Industries, Inc.; Van Orden Sand & Gravel; Braen Supply, Inc.; and Braen Aggregates, LLC—will be honored by the Northern New Jersey Council of the Boy Scouts of America for exemplifying that high standard.

The Braen family also dedicates itself to community-friendly business practices that not only add to the value of the local economy but also to the quality of life Braen employees, customers, and others enjoy. They have always strived to meet environmental standards long before the standards are in place, thinking first of the health, welfare, and comfort of their employees and neighbors first. They have been honored for their good work, including as New Jersey Family Business of the Year.

So, tonight, as the Boy Scouts honor the Braen family for the support they have shown Scouts and Scouting, I rise to share in their tribute and to thank the Braen family for its contribution to making north Jersey such a fine place to live, work, and raise a family.

VETERANS DAY PRAYER

HON. JOE WILSON

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2007

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, as greatful Americans prepare for providing deserved tributes for our courageous veterans, I have fortunately been provided a profound poem from Clinton B. Campbell of Beauford, SC.

MY VETERAN'S DAY PRAYER

Lord, when the pull of my bed lures me to stay another hour, please remind me of taps being played for the fallen,
of the tears that reach my cheek
after each name is read, the ones I know personally and the ones old-timers
talk about in awe.

After the crowd stumbles
through The Pledge of Allegiance
I want to be there
and listen with all my heart
while the winner of this year's essay contest quiets the crowd
reminding us of why
we are paying our respects.
